

Services for cyber security of financial institutions.

To reduce the threat of cyber security attacks we can offer the following services.

- Development of a security policy.
- In case a security policy exists, we can assist in revising to consider the threats of cyber security.
- Integration of the security policy with business related risks.
- Services to regularly assist in evaluating the changing threat landscape and update the security policies.
- External analysis of the effectiveness from an independent point of view.
- Provide current and relevant training related to security and risk management for employees of the financial institutions.
- Assist in the development of intrusion detection systems.
- Assist in the development of anomalous behavior and transaction analysis linked to risk management of the business processes.
- Integration of anomalous network behavior with business processes.
- Evaluation of existing security procedures and controls.
- Vulnerability assessments.
- Penetration tests.
- Audit and testing of Incident Response Mechanism
- Audit and testing of Business Continuity Mechanisms.
- Audit and strengthening of security between interlinked organizations.
- Training on the development of secure communication channels between systems.
- Development of strong communication components to move data between legacy existing systems in a secure manner.
- Training for secure and reliable programming.

Contact :

cyber-security@atrc.net.pk

<http://atrc.net.pk>

+92-331-2036-422